Introduction

Cornerstone 82 is our way of thanking Sacred Heart for the good times we have shared and the special memories we will always treasure. As our high school days draw to a close, we say goodbye with mixed feelings of excitement and sadness. We are eager to meet the new challenges awaiting us, yet we are leaving a special part of our lives behind. After all, we have done a lot of "growing up" here at Sacred Heart. We have been encouraged to fulfill our academic goals and, at the same time, have made lasting friendships. Although we are ready to go our separate ways, we all share the same feelings of gratitude and love towards Sacred Heart. We will miss our friends and teachers here and we will think of them each time we look through these pages.

Love,
The Seniors

Dedication

The Senior class would like to dedicate Cornerstone 82 to two very special women in our lives.

Mrs. Brady, your presence and friendship is valued and appreciated. You are our "10"; you give us life through your wit, vivaciousness, guidance and devotion. Your warmth and receptiveness to our needs evinces your willingness to sacrifice your time for us. You endure empty homerooms, red sweaters, and difficult recommendations. We will remember your sense of humor, your cackle, your energy and the closeness that exists between you and each and every student. You have cared enough to encourage us to appreciate and to enrich our lives. For those students who do not know Mrs. Brady, a gift awaits you in this fine teacher who will also be your friend.

Love,
The Seniors.

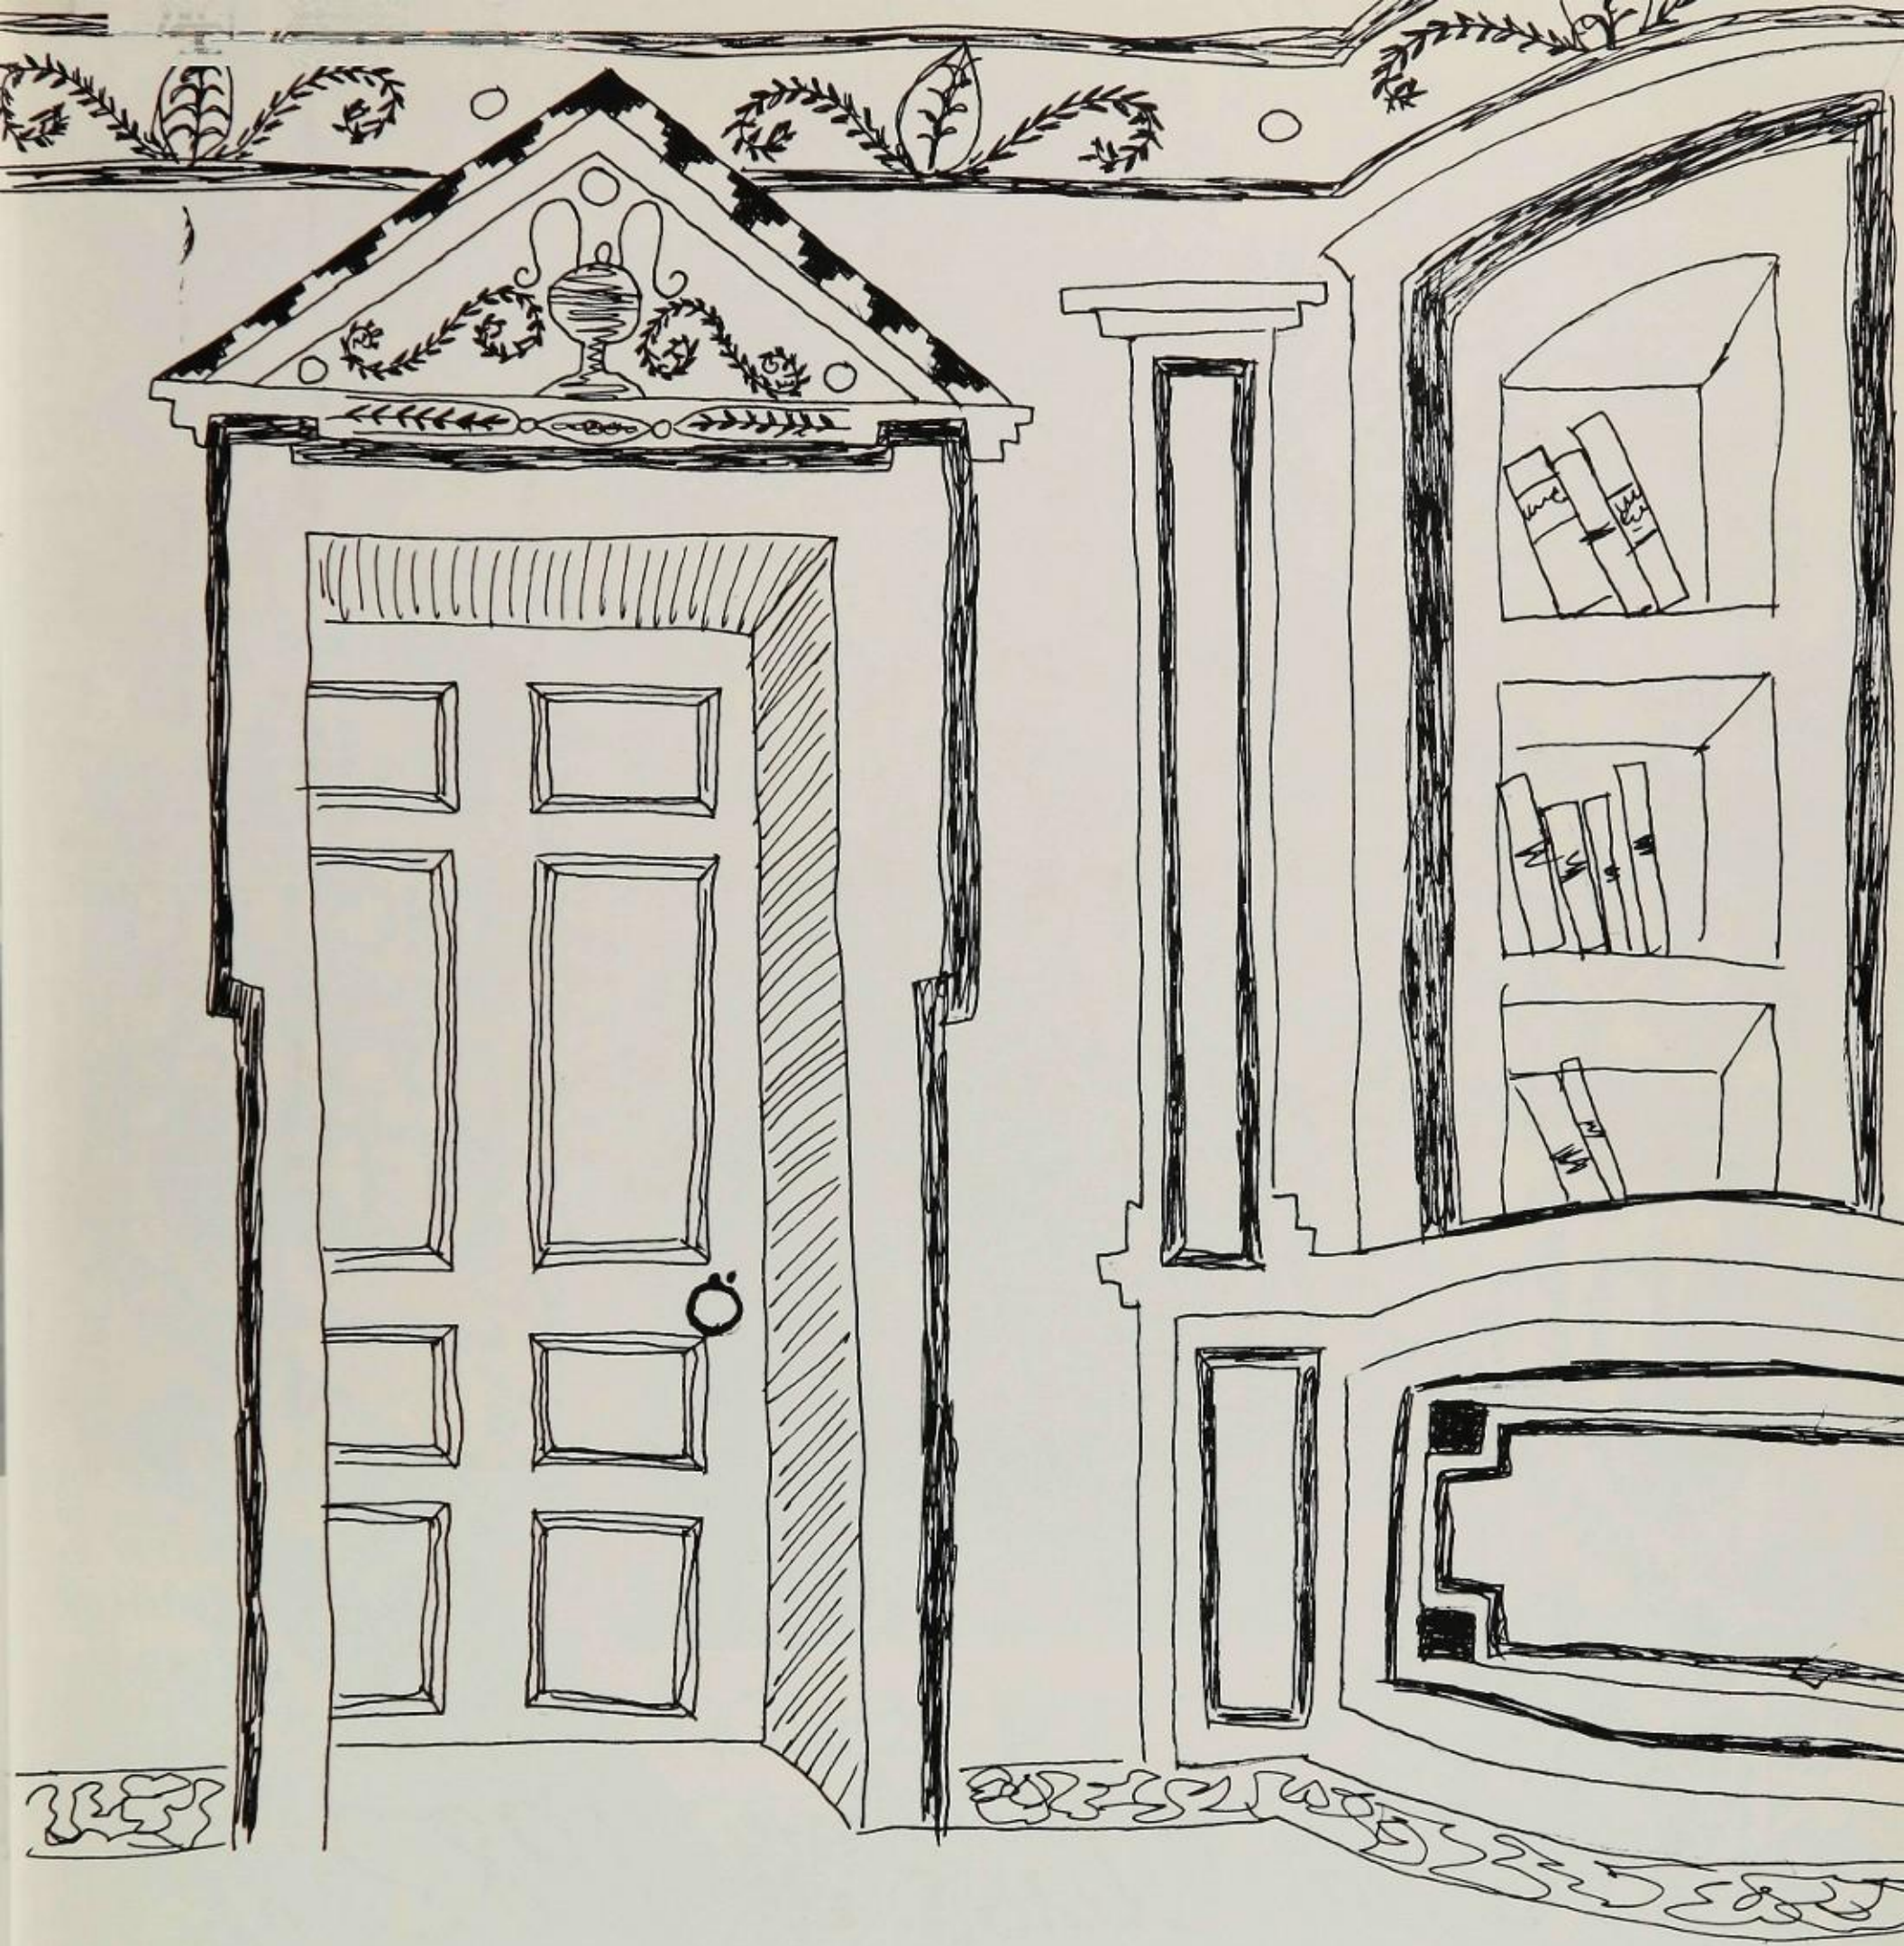

Sr. Fox, you have given much of yourself in helping us to learn and to grow intellectually. We appreciate the concern and patience that you extend to each student and we admire your energy and devotion. You have guided us through the Renaissance and Reaganomics, you respect our ideas, and through your genius you have helped us to make sense of it all. We want to thank you for sharing your knowledge and your sense of humor. We are grateful for your dedication and we will remember you always.

*With Love,
The Senior Class*

Here's wishing you the bluest sky
and hoping something better comes tomorrow.
Follow all the doubt and sadness
I know that better things are on the way.
Here's hoping all the days ahead
Won't be as bitter as the ones behind you.
Be an optimist instead
and somehow happiness will find you.
Forget what happened yesterday,
I know that better things are on the way.
I know you've got a lot of good things happening up ahead.
The past is gone, it's all been said.
But here's to what the future brings —
I know tomorrow you'll find better things.

It is better to be making the news
than taking it, to be an actor

Scattered pictures, of the smiles we left behind Smiles we gave to one another for the way we were,
Can it be that life was so simple then?
Or has time rewritten every line —
If we had a chance to do it all again
tell me:
would we? — could we?
So it's the laughter we will remember whenever we remember.

The Class of 1982 would like to thank Miss Taylor, our ever faithful homeroom teacher, for her cheerful presence, understanding, and constant encouragement.

We will miss you,
The Seniors.

Acknowledgement

The Yearbook Staff of Cornerstone 1982 would like to thank the following people for their time and support:

Mr. Frank Bolton, who demonstrated his patience and willingness to make it easier for us.

Mrs. Suzanne Price, who always knew we really could do it.

Mrs. Brady, Miss Henry, Sr. Derham, and Sr. Meier.

The Faculty and Students of 91st Street for letting us put their spirit into this book.

THANK YOU.

8414 . . . where IS the staff? . . . TAB, drink it, don't spill it . . . 45 pages in one week and no pictures!?! . . . you can't be serious . . . Madeleine, it looks like it's just you and me . . . but it's not on the little line . . . we need the ladder . . . Melanie control yourself . . . the ghosts of the darkroom . . . Stephanie, it's 6 a.m., we've got to work faster . . . does L come after K? . . . WPIX . . . yes, Jackie, you can have every little pebble . . . after 3 anything goes . . . where's the grease pencil? . . . Brigitte, can't we extend the deadline? . . . wait! I'm not on this page . . . Dina, don't forget your pen . . . they'll definitely censor that . . . you mean No-One Knows how to type? . . . this is an electric typewriter you don't have to thump it . . . Elaine, are you sure we can afford this? . . . we should be proud of ourselves . . . it'll be the best Yearbook ever!

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.
It was but yesterday we met in a dream.
You have sung to me in my aloneness,
and I of your longings have built a tower
in the sky.
But now our sleep has fled and our dream
is over, and it is no longer dawn.
The noon tide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.
If in the daylight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.
And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.

And great Goethe, accepting the inevitable truth that human growth does not proceed in a straight line to its goal, had compared the development and progress of mankind to the reelings of a drunken beggar on horseback. What was important, perhaps, was not that the beggar was drunk and reeling but that he was mounted on his horse and, however, unsteadily, was going somewhere.

It is with a deep sense of personal loss and grief that the 91st Street Community dedicates this page to Gary L. Ruth.

Every so often in life you meet a person of true commitment. Gary Ruth was such a man.

More than our Business Manager, he was a dedicated and compassionate member of our 91st Street Community. He made the transition from the business to the educational world with remarkable ease. There was no facet of school life in which he was not knowledgeable and involved.

He wore many hats in the course of a day, but under those hats was a man of integrity and generosity who always had time to listen and to help. He was a facilitator, an enabler, a problem-solver; more than that, he was a friend. Gary will be remembered with love. He was an integral part of our lives at Sacred Heart. May he rest in peace.

WILLIAM GREENE – R.I.P.

The Board of Trustees, and the entire Ninety-first Street community, dedicate this page in loving memory of William Greene (1926-1981).

Bill was a dedicated, dynamic, loving member of our Board of Trustees from 1976-1981. Our Board meetings have not been the same without Bill's probing questions, his insight, and his vision of our future commitment to the young women of the Convent.

We extend our prayers and sympathy to his wife Pat and to his daughters Ellen, Class of 1978, and Sarah, Class of 1980.

May he rest in peace.
